PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Our first meeting was successful and we are off to an exciting new program year. Judy Wilson and Jill Albaugh provided us with a timely and comprehensive overview at the Department of Energy (DOE) Oak Ridge Office and National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA) Y-12 Site Office. Thanks ladies for taking time out of your busy schedules to update our group.

We are very excited about the October 7th Seminar, Challenges faced by Un-populated LLCs. Make your reservations early as space is limited.

Mr. Graham's topic for the luncheon meeting will provide valuable information so please make plans to attend.

Faye Orick, C.P.M., CPCM

SPEAKER

Mr. James Hatcher Graham

Mr. Graham has 40 years of broad based legal experience in the U.S. government. He served in active military duty for 15 years in various personnel, legal, and management roles. He has been in-house legal counsel for Northrop Corporation and DANC, Inc. In 1984, Mr. Graham moved into private practice as an individual or with other law firms with the major portion of his practice focused on Federal procurement and contract law representing contractors who contract with the U.S. government. He is well recognized for his legal skills and capabilities. He has served as an instructor in Federal Procurement Law and a regular lecturer at seminars on construction law problems.

Mr. Graham's primary focus areas:

- REA/CLAIMS STRATEGIST
- LEGAL THEORY AND CONTRACT INTERPRETATION
- LEGAL REPRESENTATION IF NECESSARY
- THIRD PARTY INDEPENDENT REA REVIEW
